

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

PHILIP D. JORDAN is a Fellow of the Royal Historical Society (England) and sometime Professor of History at the University of Minnesota. He now lives in Burlington, Iowa. Among his many books are The National Road (1948), Fiddlefoot Jones of the North Woods (1957), Edward Bonney and the Banditti of the Prairies (1963), and The World of the Historian (1963).

SUSAN C. McQUIN is a graduate student in American Civilization at The University of Iowa. She received her B.S. degree in English and French from Iowa State University in 1969. From 1970 to 1972 she was a member of the Peace Corps in the Philippines.

DOROTHY MOELLER was editor, with Wendell Johnson, of the 1967 edition of the college text Speech Handicapped School Children, and with him is the author of Living with Change: the Semantics of Coping (1972), a book she produced by selecting and synthesizing certain of his observations about creative ways of handling common human problems. She has recently completed a history of the pioneering leadership of the Iowa scholars, including Dr. Johnson, in establishing a new discipline that today is well and widely known as speech pathology and audiology.

Speaker at the tenth annual spring dinner of the Friends on Friday evening, April 12, 1974, will be Herbert Ross Brown. Dr. Brown, a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, is emeritus professor of Rhetoric and Oratory at Bowdoin College and managing editor of The New England Quarterly.

Life membership in the Friends is awarded to patrons whose gifts of rare books or financial contributions are at least $1,000, and to sustaining members whose annual contributions of $100 may become equivalent to this. Other annual memberships are solicited as follows: contributing memberships $25.00, regular memberships $10.00, student memberships $5.00. Institutions are accepted as regular members.

The illustration on the back cover concludes the story of "The Roosevelt Bears in a Balloon."
